Auf den folgenden Seiten finden Sie Beispielaufgaben für den Englisch- und Französischunterricht. Die Seiten können direkt als Kopiervorlage genutzt werden.

Message in a bottle

You are on holiday on a little island with your parents and you find an empty bottle at the beach. You want to send a message in this bottle.

Write about

- who you are
- where you are from
- what you are doing on the island

Write a minimum of 10 words.

A series of horizontal dotted lines for writing, starting from the first line and continuing down the page.

Mobile

You are the only student in your class who doesn't have a mobile. Your great-aunt in America has asked you what you want for your birthday. You ask her to send you money so that you can buy yourself a mobile. However, you know that she

- is very old-fashioned and doubtful about new technologies
- fears a mobile might be harmful to your health
- is convinced that you will not be able to pay for the monthly expenses

Write a letter trying to convince her that in spite of her worries, a mobile is the perfect present for you.

Write 200 to 250 words.

A series of horizontal dotted lines for writing the letter.

Exchange Visit

It is the last day of your exchange visit to Britain. You get up and go into the kitchen where you find a note on the table from your exchange partner's mum.

Write a reply to her note. Answer all her questions. Write 40 – 60 words.

Hello Toni, I had to go to work early today but will be home before you get back from school. What do you want to take with you for the journey back to Germany? What do you want to eat and drink? Can I get you any little presents for you to take back for your family or friends, or have you got everything? Please write me a list of the things you still need and who they are for. See you later, Sue
